

2013 LWML Convention Host Committee Chairman Appointed

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania will be the site for the June 27-30, 2013, Lutheran Women's Missionary League 35th Biennial Convention. Six LWML Districts will host the convention: Atlantic, Eastern, English, New England, New Jersey, and SELC.

LWML President Janice Wendorf recently announced the appointment of Maureen Consiglio to serve as the Host Committee Chairman for the 2013 convention. Currently the Atlantic District LWML President, Maureen Consiglio lives in Coram, New York. President Wendorf commented, "There will be exciting challenges for the six host districts due to the large geographic area they cover. I am confident in the excellent leadership that the Lord has provided to Maureen as she begins developing the host committee team for the Pittsburgh convention."

Maureen Consiglio sharing that she was honored to be appointed as the 2013 LWML Host Committee Chairman said, "I was thankful for the opportunity and pray for guidance. With the help of the God and the members of the six LWML districts hosting the convention, I will do my best to fulfill the duties as Host Committee Chairman."

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. For over 65 years, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global missions.
